

Fantastic Films International Adds OUTRAGE Starring Michael Madsen, Natasha Lyonne and Michael Berryman

LOS ANGELES, May 14, 2009 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Fantastic Films International (FFI), headed by Roxane Barbat and Fred deWysocki, has signed on to handle the worldwide distribution for OUTRAGE, a white-knuckle thriller starring Michael Madsen (Sin City, Reservoir Dogs), Natasha Lyonne (American Pie) and Michael Berryman (The Devil's Rejects, The Hills Have Eyes).

Michael Madsen plays Farragut, an ex-Marine sniper who unleashes a wave of terror upon a group of friends (Natasha Lyonne, Katie Fountain, Ace Cruz and Derek Lee Nixon) who are on vacation in a mountain lodge. The friends escape into the woods, with help from a simple handyman, Bill (Pauly D), and a mountain mystic, Obeah (Michael Berryman), but the bloodthirsty killers are in hot pursuit.

Producer/director Ace Cruz brings the story itself to life with pulse-pounding intensity, drawing upon his cast of notable screen vets.

Michael Madsen calls the project "a thrilling, exciting and invigorating movie with a great message."

Natasha Lyonne said the feature is "an interesting film that explores the power of the psyche and subconscious mind to determine or color our conditions, reality and experience." She also said "Michael Madsen is so cool."

Michael Berryman who is primarily known for his bad guy roles switches gears in OUTRAGE as the insightful Obeah. "The producers have spent time to weave a story of danger, intrigue and choices," says Berryman. "The message of the film is most powerful. The pure entertainment is solid and uncompromising. It's a film you can watch many times and take something new from it."

FFI will introduce OUTRAGE to Cannes buyers at their Carlton Hotel, suite #134 location, U.S. cell: +1-310-560-9577.
